INTERIM CONSENT ORDER
RESOLVING MOTION TO ENFORCE LITIGANT'S RIGHTS

TO PRACTICE PSYCHOLOGY
IN THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY

This matter came before the New Jersey State Board of Psychological Examiners ("Board") upon the Motion to Enforce Litigant's Rights filed by the Attorney General of New Jersey on May 20, 2014, which Motion alleged that Dr. Marsha Kleinman, Psy.D., violated the Board's December 4, 2012 Order revoking her license to practice psychology in the State of New Jersey.

The parties, wishing to resolve the Motion to Enforce Litigant's Rights, entered into an interim consent agreement, the terms of which were entered orally into the record on June 2, 2014, before the Board, and are codified in this Interim Consent Order. The Interim Consent Order, shall remain in effect pending subsequent order of the Board after a plenary hearing which shall be held peremptorily on July 8, 2014, and also, if necessary, on August 11, 2014.

The Board, making no findings with respect to the Motion to Enforce Litigant's Rights, is now satisfied that entry of the interim consent agreement and this Interim Consent Order obviates the need for further proceedings on the Motion to Enforce Litigant's Rights, and that the within disposition is adequately protective of the public health, safety and welfare. For the reasons stated above, and for good cause shown, the parties have agreed to enter into the interim consent agreement and this Interim Consent Order.

THEREFORE, IT IS on this 10th day of June, 2014, ORDERED and AGREED that:

1. The Board hereby affirms in its entirety its December 4, 2012 Order revoking the license of Dr. Kleinman. Dr. Kleinman shall abide by all the terms set forth in the December 4, 2012 Order.

2. In addition to complying with all the terms of the December 4, 2012 Order, Dr. Kleinman:

- a. Shall not perform Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing therapy;
- b. Shall not perform any form of cognitive behavioral therapy;
- c. Shall not perform any form of behavioral therapy;
- d. Shall not perform supportive psychotherapy;
- e. Shall not perform insight oriented therapy;
- f. Shall not perform family therapy;
- g. Shall not discuss the subject of sex, including but not limited to sexual abuse, sexual conduct, sexuality, or sexual preferences, with any person in any professional services context;
- h. Shall not discuss suppressed memories with any person in any professional services context;
- i. Shall not provide coaching services to anyone under the age of 18;
- j. Shall not provide coaching services to any of her prior psychotherapy patients;
- k. Shall not provide tutoring services in any academic subject to anyone under the age of 14;
- l. Shall not provide tutoring services in any academic subject to anyone between the ages of 14 and 18 unless an adult is present in the structure in which such tutoring is occurring;

m. Shall, within 10 days of the entry of this Interim Consent Order, identify the bank and provide the account numbers for every bank account she has held or used in connection with any professional practice since December 5, 2012;

n. Shall, within 10 days of the entry of this Interim Consent Order, provide the names, ages, addresses and phone numbers of all persons to whom she has provided coaching or other therapeutic services since December 5, 2012; and

o. Shall submit to the Board by Thursday, June 5, 2014 a copy of this Interim Consent Order which she has executed before a notary. If Dr. Kleinman does not submit such an executed and notarized copy by that date, the revocation of her license to practice psychology in the State of New Jersey will be tolled and extended by the number of days between June 2, 2014 and the date of issuance of a final order resulting from the plenary hearing on the pending Administrative Complaint.

3. This Interim Consent Order shall be a full and final disposition of the Motion to Enforce Litigant's Rights filed with the Board on May 20, 2014. The Board shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Interim Consent Order.

4. In entering into the interim consent agreement and this Interim Consent Order, Dr. Kleinman makes no admissions as to the allegations upon which the Motion is based, and nothing herein shall be construed as an admission, nor used as evidence in any other proceeding relating to her conduct in 2013. In entering into this Order, Dr. Kleinman waives no defenses or jurisdictional arguments with regard to the pending Administrative Complaint.
